AMENDMENT NO. 2

On page 1, strike in their entirety lines 10 through 14, inclusive; in line 16, strike “the Laws of Maryland read as follows”.

On pages 1 and 2, strike in their entirety the lines beginning with line 17 on page 1 through line 14 on page 2, inclusive, and substitute:

“(a) There is a Task Force on the Availability and Affordability of Property Insurance in Coastal Areas.

(b) The Task Force consists of the following members:

(Over)

(1) three members of the Senate Finance Committee, appointed by the Chair of the Committee;

(2) three members of the House Economic Matters Committee, appointed by the Chair of the Committee;

(3) the Maryland Insurance Commissioner, or the Commissioner's designee; and

(4) the People's Insurance Counsel, or the Insurance Counsel's designee.

(c) The Chair of the Senate Finance Committee and the Chair of the House Economic Matters Committee jointly shall appoint co-chairs of the Task Force from among the Senate and House members appointed to the Task Force.

(d) The Maryland Insurance Administration shall provide staff for the Task Force.

(e) A member of the Task Force may not receive compensation for serving on the Task Force, but is entitled to reimbursement for expenses under the Standard State Travel Regulations, as provided in the State budget.

(f) The purpose of the Task Force is to examine methods to ensure the continued availability and affordability of property insurance in coastal areas of Maryland.

(g) In examining methods to ensure the continued availability and affordability of property insurance in coastal areas of Maryland, the Task Force shall study:

(1) the availability and affordability of homeowner's insurance and other property insurance in coastal areas of the State, including the Eastern Shore and Southern Maryland, and whether there is sufficient competition within those areas;

(2) the current number and types of insurers in the coastal markets, including admitted carriers, excess and surplus lines carriers, residual market mechanisms, captives, and the reinsurance market, and the types of products offered;

(3) the competition and rate adequacy in the coastal markets for storm-related perils;

(4) the impact of coastal markets on the availability and affordability of property insurance in noncoastal areas and the costs associated with spreading property insurance risks among homeowners across the entire State;

(5) the regulatory framework within the State for the pricing and underwriting of property insurance, including the use of named storm deductibles;

(6) the development and evolution of storm modeling and its use by the insurance industry in the assessment of potential losses from significant storms and the need for a regulatory framework in the use of storm modeling;

(7) potential structural protections for properties in coastal areas that would result in the mitigation of storm damage in coastal areas and the extent to which such mitigation has had a beneficial impact on the availability and affordability of property insurance in other states;

(8) the ability of the State to influence patterns of real estate development in coastal areas in a manner that minimizes future exposure of the State and Maryland residents to severe storm damage to property;

(9) the effectiveness, cost, and long-term viability of alternative market mechanisms, such as limited coverage products, wind pools, the expansion of residual market mechanisms, and catastrophe funds that have been implemented or are being considered in other states or by the federal government;

(10) initiatives adopted in other states to increase availability and affordability of property insurance in coastal areas; and

(11) any other matter the Maryland Insurance Commissioner deems relevant to the availability and affordability of homeowner's insurance in coastal areas of the State.

(h) On or before December 31, 2007, the Task Force shall report on its findings and recommendations to the Governor and, in accordance with § 2-1246 of the State Government Article, the Senate Finance Committee and the House Economic Matters Committee.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act take effect June 1, 2007. It shall remain effective for a period of 1 year and, at the end of May 31, 2008, with no further action required by the General Assembly, this Act shall be abrogated and of no further force and effect.”.
