Any person who owns or operates a bottle club must register the establishment with the Baltimore City Board of License Commissioners and pay the application fee established by the board. Violations of the provisions of law pertaining to bottle clubs are misdemeanors and are subject to a fine of up to $10,000 and/or imprisonment of up to two years.

Background: A “bottle club” is any establishment that serves, gives, or allows alcoholic beverages to be consumed by patrons from supplies that the patrons previously purchased or reserved. A bottle club does not include any establishment if a license for the premises had been issued.
